

Notice of Privacy Practice

When you receive services through Oasis Medical, federal law, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA), protects your health information. In addition, HIPAA requires that we provide you this Notice of Privacy Rights. It lets you know we may use and disclose your health information and your rights regarding the health information we have in our possession.

HEALTH INFORMATION THAT WE MAINTAIN ABOUT YOU

We maintain records of:

- Your name and (if different) the name and relationship of the person receiving treatment
- Your mailing address
- Your telephone number(s)
- Your (or the patient's, if different) condition that brings you to Oasis Medical
- The date of your visit(s)
- Clinical findings related to the condition, such as pregnancy tests, ultrasounds, and any other diagnostic or monitoring test

YOUR RIGHTS REGARDING YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION

You have the right to:

- Request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures
- Receive communications of protected health information by alternative means or at alternative locations
- Inspect, copy and amend your protected health information held at Oasis Medical and receive an accounting of certain disclosures (of your protected health information)
- Receive a paper copy of this notice even if you have received it electronically

HOW WE USE AND DISCLOSE YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION

We only use or disclose your health information as state and federal laws require or permit. In some cases, the law may require that you authorize the disclosure. In other cases, the law allows us to disclose your health information without your authorization.

Use and Disclosure Not Requiring Your Authorization

Treatment: We may use your health information for our treatment activities, such as disclosing it to other healthcare providers as helpful to treat you.

Healthcare Operation: We may use and disclose your health information to manage our program operations, such as reviewing the quality of services you receive.

Business Associates:We may disclose your health information to organizations that help us with our work, such as national organizations or auditors. We have a written agreement that requires these organizations to use your health information for only necessary reasons to perform their work and protect it from other uses or disclosures.

To Contact You:We may use the information in your health records to contact you if we have information about treatment or other health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you.

Use and Disclosure with Your Authorization

Other uses and disclosures of your personal information require your written authorization. You may revoke your authorization at any time by doing so in writing. Our practice will obtain your written authorization for uses and disclosures that are not identified by this notice or permitted by applicable law.

Other Permitted Uses and Disclosures

HIPAA specifically permits us to use or disclose your health information for other purposes without your consent or authorization. In our experience such disclosures are rare, and the limited information we maintain is generally not applicable. However, when authorized by law, and to the extent, we may have the information, HIPAA permits us to disclose it to:

- Comply with the requirements of federal, state, or local laws, court orders or other lawful process and for administrative or court proceedings
- Report to a public health authority for the purpose of preventing or controlling disease, injury, or disability
- Report to the FDA for the quality, safety or effectiveness of FDA-regulated products or activities
